Sour-House.—A soup-house has been opened by the ladies of the Christian Women's City Mission at 1414 Franklin street, just below the Ballard House, where soup can be purchased at three cents per quart, or in smaller quantities at the same rates. It will be sold at present only between the hours of 11 A. M. and 3 P. M., but the ladies hope to meet with such en couragement as will enable them at an early period to keep it open all day. Should it our STOCK OF CLOARS WE CALL SPECIAL AT be found desirable or practicable they propose shortly to sell coffee and meats, to be eaten in the house, at rates which will place a good meal within the reach of all.

Visiting committees will soon be appointed to examine into the condition of all the needy in the city, and afford such aid, through the soup-house and other means, as the necessities of each case may require. They ask the aid and support of all classes in our city in this benevolent enterprise, for without it they will not be able to relieve the vast amount of suffering which will be felt amongst the poorer classes of our population during the cold, wintry weather now upon us.

THE MISTLETOE BOUGH .- All who have not seen this beautiful little pantomime will be glad to know they will have an oppor-tunity to do so during Christmas week. It is to be put on the stage by ladies and gen-tlemen whose experience and taste in such matters is sufficient guarantee for its success. It has been quite the rage in New York, Baltimore, and Washington, and will doubtless give as much enjoyment here. In addition to its artistic merits will be the satisfaction of a good deed, as the exhibition is designed to raise means for a noble charity-"The Retreat for the Sick." The lady managers have invited all their friends to cooperate with them in the good work The entertainment will be held in Mozart Hall, and an attractive supper will be served in the basement of the building.

MOZART HALL TO-NIGHT.—The first of the two musical entertainments by M'lle Rosa D'Erina will be given this evening at Mozart Hall, when that celebrated artiste will present such a programme of choice musical salestions as will downton. musical selections as will doubtless arouse the enthusiasm of our musical people to the highest pitch. It is entirely unnecessary to dilate further upon the acknowledged merits of M'lle D'Erina. She has won the unqualified approval and admiration of the best musical critics in every city she has visited, and it now remains for this community to endorse that favorable verdict by according her a genuine Virginia wel-come. A number of eligible seats may yet be reserved at Wyatt's music-store.

THE POUND-PARTY which the lady managers of St. Paul's Church Home announced for this week will come off on Saturday the 15th of December. They find it inexpedient to have refreshments as proposed, but they hope to see their friends in great force, and will be happy to show them through their institution. As the infirmary is open to all denominations, the ladies wish their friends to pay it a visit of inspection.

Grand Festival of Music. RICHMOND, December 10, 1877. At an informal meeting of citizens recently held the question was discussed of providing (what is so much needed by our city and State) a library and museum hall, where all the standard works, as well as specimens of rare and antique literature, with other curiosities gathered from all parts of the world, might be placed, thereby affording to our people an inexhaustible source of instruction and amusement. And it was thought that Richmond College, whose grounds will soon be greatly improved by the opening of new streets, enlarging and beautifying the campus, planting trees, shrubbery, &c., would be a suitable point strangers visiting the metropolis of the Old Dominion. The undersigned were appointed a committee to solicit from our people subscriptions in aid of this object, and it is thought that, in connection with their efforts to raise funds, a grand festival of music would be appropriate, as it would not only afford the riends of the enterprise an opportunity of contributing their mite towards its consum mation, but would at the same time cultivate the taste of our community by presenting to them in the best style the musical works of the great masters, embracing, among other things, a few grand choruses, sung by our best vocalists and accompanied by a full and powerful orchestra.

The entertainment will be given on Deember 18th and 19th, by the best vocal and instrumental musical talent in Richmond, including our leading soloists and a chorus of about one hundred voices.

We earnestly appeal to our citizens to encourage us by their presence at these con-

Tickets for sale by the members of the committee, exchangeable without extra charge for reserved seats, at Wyatt's musicstore on and after to-day (Tuesday). Respectfully,
